Intensive Treatment Foster Care is for who struggle with higher levels of aggressive, sexually problematic, and/or autism spectrum behaviors.

We provide dedicated care with trained, experienced foster parents.

These foster parents have only one youth per home and are able to provide the individualized care the child needs to be successful. In each of our Intensive Treatment Foster Care homes, one parent is a stay-at-home parent and is available to participate in all appointments and meetings for the child. Youth in these homes are also assigned a Behavioral Skills Worker as an extension of their therapist. In 2023, Nexus-PATH served 16 youth in Intensive Treatment Foster Care.

Treatment Foster Care is for children and youth that have a mental health diagnosis involving severe emotional and behavioral problems. We provide safe, specially equipped foster homes that have the skills and resources to meet their complex needs. Our Treatment Foster Care families are trained and certified in medication management, crisis intervention, and trauma-informed care, and they're focused on helping foster youth build healthy relationships and develop valuable life skills. Nexus-PATH case workers support these families by providing treatment consultation and behavioral management support. In addition, we use a full team approach to help address the ongoing impact of any functional disabilities and/or past trauma. Our treatment foster families collaborate closely with a Nexus-PATH case worker, the child's custodian, and other service providers to ensure the best care for each individual child. In 2023, Nexus-PATH served 159 youth in Treatment

Foster Care.

Regular Foster Care helps ensure that youth who are in the child welfare system (from birth through age 21) have their physical, emotional, and social needs met daily in a family setting, until they're reunited with their own family, or another permanent option is arranged. Our Regular Foster Care families are paired with a Nexus-PATH social worker who knows the family well and understands how they can best help children in their home. These families provide a lower level of care than our Treatment Foster Care homes. Youth in Regular Foster Care do not need to have a mental health diagnosis to receive services through Nexus-PATH. In 2023, Nexus-PATH served 205 youth in Regular Foster Care.
